HUNTER HALL EXPANDS DOMESTIC AND GLOBAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT TEAM

13 August 2010 - SYDNEY: James Hordern, Manager - Business Development and Marketing today announced two key appointments that will enhance Hunter Hall Investment Management Limited's marketing efforts in Australia and Europe.

Maria Martignoni has been appointed as Business Development Manager responsible for Victoria, South Australia and Tasmania. Maria is based in Melbourne and will be focusing on service delivery to existing relationships as well as building new business in these territories. Maria brings 11 years of experience in investment management business development having previously worked for Vanguard, as well as experience with research house Lonsec where she first entered the industry.

Isabelle Hargreaves has been appointed as Business Development Manager, Hunter Hall International (UK) Limited. Isabelle is based in London and will focus on growing Hunter Hall's European funds. Isabelle has 10 years experience in the financial industry and previously worked for Janus Capital Group, Investec Asset Management and Bloomberg. She holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) with a major in Finance from the European Business School, London.

James Hordern said "Hunter Hall has the best performing fund of any fund available in Australia over 15 years. We have achieved nearly 15% compound annual returns for investors over this period and we feel the time is right to put more feet on the ground and tell that story

"Our biggest success as a boutique fund manager has been growing our distribution capacity and now on the other end it is important that we continue to grow our sales capacity.

"We believe there is a great opportunity to parlay our track record of investing in Asia to the European market as there is a demand for our expertise and it is timely to have sales capacity to service these clients."
